

Absolute Navetta 70 "Allure" New Model

THE ALLURE OF ABSOLUTE INNOVATION

From the dynamic exterior looks of eye-catching glamour, the flybridge and cockpit terrace far larger than other comparable yachts, right through to the superb design of the interiors in a contemporary style featuring light colours and natural materials, every detail of the Absolute Navetta 70 expresses the allure of an entirely new model. Its vocation for luxury is heralded by its unmistakable looks, with Absolute's hallmarks such as the iconic open lateral parapets with sloping columns, but much more besides: the architecture and design of a genuine trend icon.

The flybridge of the new Navetta 70 offers a privileged setting, in two different versions A and B, from which to enjoy the infinite spectacle of the sea. It feels like part of a far larger yacht, with its progression of seamlessly integrated areas, from the forward helm station, to a wet bar, outdoor galley and dining table for 6-8 guests in the shade offered by a retractable canopy, to the leisure area astern with designer furniture that can be rearranged to suit the occasion, whether aperitifs in the warm light of the setting sun, or a platform for late-night dancing. The same sense of generous space can be found on the cockpit terrace and the saloon with its free-standing table and large galley, enhanced by the use of stylish colours and the exquisite crafts skill of Italy's finest artisans. The Navetta 70 is a totally new design that represents a radical departure for the brand and the entire sector. Its interiors are supremely sensual and seductive, with bleached wood, tones of white, grey and black, rounded corners on the furnishing accessories, and bronze detailing expressing a sleek and glamorous look. Freedom of movement is ensured by floor levels with a minimal use of steps, high ceilings throughout, and space-saving sliding doors. A sense of continuity is provided by the circular motif used for ceiling decor and light fittings. From all the interiors, vast windows establish a constant connection with the seascapes outside, in a perfect combination with the sophisticated design of the living spaces. The allure of the Navetta 70 is based on all the innovative fashion and luxury that Absolute has infused into this yacht. It is the latest and very best that Italian design has to offer
