Saloon

Master Cabin

The master stateroom is full beam and located midships. It has a private head and shower on the starboard side which also provides access to the engine room. The queen bed is centered in the room and facing forward with much storage underneath and to either side. To the port side of the bed there is a large built-in dresser that runs the length of the room providing even more storage for the owners. Attached to the forward port side there is a den-like area with a desk/vanity and L-shaped settee that turns into a bunk. There are hanging lockers on both sides of the room and a TV mounted on the forward wall facing aft.

Pilothouse

The Pilothouse/Pilothouse area is spacious and offers plenty of storage space. Changing a look for a settee/dining area, the pilothouse is easily accessible to the salon, flybridge, on the side, and also the aft deck. The aft deck space is located a few feet back from the elevated position of the aft stateroom. Aft steps of the pilothouse take you to the salon/galley, forward steps take you to the lower cabin area, and steps on the starboard side lead you to the flybridge.
